AAUW Mission: to advance equity for women and girls through advocacy, philanthropy, education, and research

In principle and practice, AAUW values and seeks a diverse membership. There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of gender, race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, or class.

By joining AAUW, you belong to a community that breaks through educational and economic barriers so that all women have a fair chance.

At the College Park AAUW branch, we plan programs for personal growth, and work to help women pursue higher education and leadership development.

MAKE EQUITY REAL

As an AAUW member, you'll be proud to belong to a nationwide group of 100,000 people who:

- Value education and equal rights;
- Are contributing to a more promising future for all women and girls; and,
- Provide a powerful voice for women and girls.

As a member of the national association, you will receive tangible benefits:

- A voice in government
- A powerful network
- Timely and relevant information at your fingertips
- National and state activities
- Opportunities for activism
- Professional and educational support
- Access to fellowships, grants, and scholarships
- Updates on groundbreaking research
- Increased buying power

As long as inequity exists, AAUW needs strong advocates to stand with us. Women today still need your help, and so does AAUW.

WHO CAN JOIN?

- If you hold an associate or equivalent degree, bachelor's or higher degree or an honorary degree from a regionally accredited college or university, you can join AAUW as a member of the College Park Branch.
- If you are an undergraduate in a two- or four-year regionally accredited educational institution, you can join as a student affiliate. (Ask if your institution is a campus partner!)
- If you are a graduate student you can join as a full member for a very special price.
